OUR STORY

White Tiger Gourmet makes its home in the 100-plus year old structure on Hiawassee Avenue, in the Historic Boulevard District. Built in 1905, the space originally housed a grocery store called Davis House and served the needs of the then mill neighborhood. This historic building has a cozy, informal atmosphere...making it a unique space to dine and view the work of local artists. In March of 2007 Ken Manring, a Gainesville Georgia native and graduate of New York's Culinary Institute of America, brought his talents to Athens and opened The White Tiger Gourmet.
